Mission

FADAP's mission is to support a culture of safety while helping Flight Attendants reclaim their personal and professional lives through substance abuse awareness, referral for assistance and a Flight Attendant-specific recovery support system.

History

The advancement of FADAP has been endorsed by Flight Attendant peers and managers from 25 carriers. FADAP was conceived by the Association of Flight Attendants-CWA (AFA-CWA) for the Flight Attendant profession. FADAP began in September 2010 with funding from the Federal Aviation Administration for all Flight Attendants regardless of employer or affiliation.

Services

FADAP is available to all FAA certified Flight Attendants no matter what status you currently hold- active, furloughed or even if you are on leave.

- 24/7 access to a Flight Attendant peer who understands and can talk with you about substance abuse-whether it is a concern about a flying partner's use or your own.
- Referral to treatment programs that understand the culture of the Flight Attendant profession.
- Post treatment support services to help you sustain your recovery while balancing work and home life.
- Educational materials and conferences on substance abuse prevention, intervention and treatment.

Contact FADAP

FADAP is committed to being available when you have a question, concern or are seeking information about a substance abuse issue. If you would like to talk about your own substance abuse or have concerns about a flying partner's use, please call your designated FADAP peer listed at www.fadap.org or call the 24 hour toll free FADAP helpline. The FADAP helpline operator will patch your call directly into your airline FADAP peer or the FADAP peer on call.

Help is only a phone call away. For confidential assistance, contact FADAP at (855) 333-2327.
